Most durable, because the combination of the Springs is such as to give perfect elasticity to the gear, thereby entirely obviating the clapping motion and consequent strain on the wheels and other parts of the Wagon, allowing the Wagon to pass over all irregularities of the road without wounding or cracking the box or jerking, or inconvenience to those riding.

The binding of the axle is necessarily with a roller Platform Wagon, is entirely obviated, allowing the Wagon to follow the road without crowding the team from side to side.

Our Wagon are manufactured from choice material, by the best mechanics, thoroughly painted, with fine finish and trim, and warranted. If you want a Family Wagon, a Pedaler's Wagon, Market wagon, or a Wagon for any of the purposes for which the Platform or Permanent Wagon is generally used, we can and try the Wagon and you will use no other.

NEVADA STATE NEWS.

A LITTLE MORE STEVENSON.

At the Republican National Convention held in the city of Philadelphia a little over three years ago, for the nomination of President and Vice President of the United States, Mr. Stevenson was present as Chairman of the Nevada delegation, the other delegates present were Mr. Grier, of Silver City, Col. Sabin, of Pioche, Major Jack Holmes, proxy for Col. Head, of Elko, and Mr. H. G. Parker, of Carson City, proxy for Mr. J. W. Hines, five delegates in all. The proceedings of the convention were held in Music Hall, where seats for six persons were allotted to Nevada, one more seat than delegates. Governor Nye, at that time U. S. Senator for Nevada, desired to be present in this convention with the delegation from his own State, and it was suggested to Mr. Stevenson, as Chairman of the delegation, to invite Governor Nye to occupy the spare seat. This he declined doing, and instead, gave the seat to his own son, a red-headed youth of some 17 or 18 summers. This discourteous act so mortified Gov. Nye, that although he was invited to take a seat with the New York delegation, he declined being present during the proceedings of that day. For the truth of this statement we refer any person who may doubt it, to the members of the delegation who were present, even to Mr. Stevenson himself. Does any one wonder that we object to this man being our representative again at Philadelphia, or that he shall take any part whatever, in representing our State at the Centennial Exhibition. We know that there are well-bred gentlemen in Nevada. Everybody would be satisfied and pleased with the Governor's appointments—Major McCoy and Mr. Haines. Why, we shall ask, in the name of the respectable citizens of this State, was this management of Centennial affairs ever taken out of their hands and placed in this man Stevenson's?

APOLOGY.

We accept the statement of the Enterprise and apologize for having accused the editor of that paper of allowing Mr. Stevenson to whisper in his ears. But in view of the fact of its having made such a warm defense of Mr. Stevenson, we should respectfully advise its editor to permit that gentleman in the future to whisper some, before he has anything more to say in his defense. Mr. Stevenson has denied point-blank in the Carson Appeal that Mr. Stewart was indebted to him before his appointment as specimen collector, and right in the face of this denial the editor of the Enterprise admits that in his presence and from his own knowledge Mr. Stevenson gave Mr. Stewart $100 and sent him $100 more to Humboldt, making $200 advanced by Mr. Stevenson to Mr. Stewart for Centennial purposes. This confirms our statement exactly, and in view of the fact that Mr. Stevenson required Mr. Stewart to pay him $550, when he had only advanced him $200 for Centennial purposes, we are still of the opinion that there was a debt between them of about $350 which had no connection whatever with their Centennial transactions. It certainly will require more evidence than Mr. Stevenson's simple denial and showing of his note book to change our opinion.

Among overland passengers there is frequent complaint of the uncleanly condition of the first class cars of the Central Pacific Railway. The sleeping cars are not complained of, but travelers getting on between San Francisco and Ogden and finding all the sleeping berths engaged, aver that the cars which they are forced to travel in are obnoxious and disgusting beyond description.

PLYMOUTH CHURCH has 2,490 members. Its school has 2,844 pupils and 255 teachers. It raised last year, exclusive of contributions, $111,414, and in the last five years it has bestowed in charity over $100,000.

The delightful and invigorating amusement of coasting has been splendid in Hamilton during the past week, and the girls and boys every evening have made lots of noise and had heaps of fun.

An Austin man who was fined $20 for sleeping on the sidewalk, remarked to the Judge that he must think the sidewalk was a seventeen-room suite in the Palace Hotel when he charged that price.

Ex-Senator James W. Nye, who has been for some time an inmate of Sanford Hall, a private asylum for the insane, in Flushing, has so far recovered his faculties as to be returned to the care of his relations, and is at present at the house of one of his daughters in New York City.

Keep in mind that the last day to record work done and improvements made on mines for 1875, as required by Act of Congress, will expire on the 31st instant.

The five hundred army overcoats promised the Relief Committee by General Sheridan for the sufferers by the fire have arrived. They are now at the store room of the Relief Committee ready for distribution. They are of the infantry pattern.

On Monday, December 20th, Mr. M. Fredrick, the well known jeweler, will give the good people of the Comstock range a benefit. He will on that day afford them an opportunity such has never before been offered—namely, to buy watches, diamonds, and jewelry of all kinds at auction, all the articles being first-class and genuine.

Capt. A. W. Pray has purchased the magnificent timber tract comprised in the "Friday Ranch" on the south-east shore of Lake Tahoe. The price paid was $4,000. He has also leased the "Friday Ranch," the property of Mrs. M. K. Burk, for two years at an annual rent of $1,000.

Stanley's Last Letter.

The last letter of Stanley to the New York Herald reads like some fascinating story of romance. It is dated at Ulegalla, the capital of an African monarchy, a spot less than a degree from the great Victoria Nyanza, the source of the stream, that through the ages, coming from unknown fountains, has made harvests possible in Egypt; and through which Egypt was for centuries the granary of the world. The letter tells of his explorations of the great lake; how for days and days beneath that African sun he followed its winding shores in a frail boat, taking observations and making soundings, fighting treacherous tribes, and still persevering, until upon reaching the land of the ruler Mtesa, he tarried a few days, the guest of that dusky sovereign, in whose capital he wrote the letter to which we are referring. His letter confirms Spoke and proves that Livingstone was in error, and in proof conclusive that the source of the Nile is now definitely ascertained.

The King Mtesa is the same one who received Speke, but Stanley says he has become in a manner civilized and greatly changed. He received Stanley with unusual ceremonies and lavished luxuries upon him. Some years ago he became a convert to the Mohammedan faith, but through Stanley's influence he turned half Christian, concluding to keep the Christian as well as the Moslem Sabbath, had the command of Moses written on a board for daily perusal, and wants teachers for his people.

Stanley estimates that Mtesa's people number two million, says they possess a lovely country of over seventeen thousand square miles in area, rich in ivory, cattle and coffee, and Stanley believes the nucleus for the civilization and regeneration of Africa is in Mtesa's domain. It is an unlimited field and to it might be applied the words spoken of old: "The harvest is ready, but the laborers are few."—Enterprise.

THE New York Herald nominates Cardinal McCloskey as the successor of Pope Pius IX. Sam Bowles of the Springfield Republican is understood to favor Charles Francis Adams for the position; while Dana of the New York Sun goes in strong for the truly good Deacon Richard Smith of the Cincinnati Gazette. The San Francisco Chronicle nominates W. H. L. Barnes, as one who has had a long experience in the ways of the world. The Journal nominates C. C. Stevenson, the Nevada Centennial Martyr.

NEVADA MINING NEWS.

An assessment of 50 cents per share has been levied on the stock of the Belmont Mining Company, delinquent January 13th.

The Northern Belle Mining Company have declared a dividend of $1 per share, amounting to $50,000 payable on the 15th.

There have been forty-eight assessments on the Hale & Norcross, and we presume the Trustees will have no hesitation in levying as many more if necessary.

In November the yield of the Gila mine is reported by the Superintendent to have been $61,239 22; and in the first week of this month the output was $12,000 worth of bullion. On the 9th bullion to the amount of $3,452 was sent from the Justice; and on the 7th $4,200 from the Leopard.

The Trustees and officers of Sucoor wish to state to those who have suspicions that fraud exists in the management, to examine the books, to which they have free access at any time during office hours.

It is likely that Belcher will pay a dividend in January.

Dame Rumor says Jim Keene has gone in with General Williams, and that these two men now control Justice.

The Globe Consolidated Mining Company, American Flat, have graded the ground for the foundations of pumping machinery which is to be of as great capacity as any on the Comstock lode.

The Elko Post of Saturday says the shipments of bullion from the Leopard Mill have been light for several days. This may be accounted for by the fact of bad roads between the mine and mill and difficulty of hauling ore, and the further fact since the 1st instant the mill has been overhauled and necessarily was idle a part of the time. Since last Saturday six bars of bullion have been received, of the value of $12,511 34.

CALIFORNIA STATE NEWS.

Los Angeles is infested by vagrant Indians of intemperate proclivities.

The feature of the Sunday dinner at the State Prison is a 1,200 pound pudding.

Placerville boasts of three first class hotels, and as many more that rank respectably.

Thursday morning the New World made the trip from San Francisco to Vallejo in one hour and forty minutes.

Trinity county had 12 inches of rain up to the time that the snow set in, and then the weather clerk stopped keeping tally.

San Fernando refined petroleum finds ready sale at 30 cents per gallon. The Star Oil Company have made a success in refining the crude product.

Napa has organized a police department, and will either lease or construct a dugout for its accommodation and such prey as the members capture.

A person who is referred to by the Gazette, as a very intelligent hoodlum, has been addressing the people of San Mateo on the fallacies of Christianity.

An old wreck has come ashore at Monterey that has lain in the bay since 1857. There was a general rush of the population to strip the copper from the bottom.

An English gentleman from New Zealand has purchased eighty acres of land in Los Angeles for the purpose of erecting a villa. He returned to New Zealand for his family on the steamer Mikado.

Frank B. Scott attempted the murder of Jesse Spencer, near Napa City, Thursday evening, and inflicted two knife wounds of a dangerous character. Spencer's mother interfered and knocked Scott over with a club before he proceeded further in the bloody work.

Mrs. J. Allen eloped from Los Angeles with D. J. Dingman, who also left a family behind, and the pair took passage for San Francisco on the Orizaba. They were intercepted in Santa Barbara, and disembarked in custody of an officer. The lady was found sequestered in a state-room, arrayed in male attire.

W. H. Baxter, Secretary of the State Grange, has been appointed Special Commissioner for California for the Southern States Agricultural and Industrial Exhibition, to be held on the New Orleans Fair Grounds, February 26th 1876.

At Cornucopia hay is $100 per ton; wood $40 per cord; butter $1 per pound; barley 7 cents per pound; flour $9 per hundred. But board yet remains at its old rate, $8 per week.

BELCHER AND CROWN POINT.

The Gold Hill end of the Comstock has been in favor in consequence of the excellent showing made by the Belcher mine for November; when a mine cleans $200,000 in one month, over and above all expenses, it is not to be sneezed at, and a $2 dividend about Christmas time wouldn't be a bad thing for Belcher holders to take, and from all reports Belcher will do even better than this in future, consequently Belcher has been in demand during the week. There are no entangling alliances in its management, there are no antagonistic claims of titles. Its past record has been good and its management deserves the confidence of those who go down on California street and dabble in stocks. Much of what has been said about Belcher applies to Crown Point its next door neighbor except that the dividend rumors concerning the latter mine are not as numerous and pointed as those which refer to Belcher.—S. F. Stock Exchange.

Gov. INGERSOLL has appointed Ex Governor James E. English, of New Haven, as the successor of Gen. Ferry in the United States Senate. Mr. English has been twice a member of the lower branch of Congress, and twice Governor of the State. Beginning life a poor boy, he is now one of the wealthiest men in Connecticut. This appointment is considered a good one, even by his political opponents.

RESIGNS.—H. R. Whitehill, State Mineralogist, on the 2d instant, tendered his resignation as specimen collector and Secretary of the State Board of Centennial Commissioners. This is to be regretted, under all the attending circumstances. Of the resignation, the Carson Appeal wisely suggests that C. C. Stevenson will follow suit. If the latter's connection was severed with the Centennial business, there would be a reasonable hope for a partial success, at least.—Belmont Courier of Friday.

The National Republican Committee will meet in Washington next Thursday to fix upon the time and place to hold a National Convention to nominate a President and Vice President.

A SPECIAL from Washington says the Democrats are generally accepting the idea that they should fall in with the President's suggestion of a constitutional amendment prohibiting the support of sectarian schools out of the public money.

OUR TOWN ROUTE.

Mr. Ohas Thurston will hereafter have charge of the town route of the Journal, delivering the paper to subscribers, and to him alone will they be responsible for payment from and after this date. All persons owing to the present time will please call at this office and settle their accounts. Mr. Thurston will deliver the paper promptly, and no one will have cause for complaint on this score. If you wish the Journal at your place of business or residence give him your order.

Proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners.

The Board meet yesterday pursuant to adjournment. Present, Peleg Brown, (chairman), Orrin O. Ross and Judge Owens; Shoemaker, Clerk; Co-sitt, District Attorney, and Jones, Sheriff.

The following claims against the county were allowed: H. H. Hogan, $275; A. A. Longley, $112; J. S. Shoemaker, $87 20; L. Ekroast, $16 50; J. E. Jones, $316 15; W. Sanders, $30; Geo. Jamison, $9 75; Jno. B. Williams, $139; G. W. Avery, $88; Wm. Turley, $19; G. H. Douglas, $65 92; H. W. Barlow, $83; Depot Hotel, $17 50.

The Treasurer was ordered to pay interest on two bonds, due January 1st, 1876.

The District Attorney was ordered to commence suit against the delinquent tax-payers.

The Board then adjourned until the first Monday in January.

DANCE.—To-night the Reno Library and Social Club give another of their entertaining dances at the Opera House. The occasion will be one of enjoyment to all who attend. Tickets can be procured of the members and at the stores.

YESTERDAY the Trustees of the Con. Poe decided to postpone the delinquent stock sale until the 23d instant.

SULPHUR.—The discovery of what was believed to be cinnabar, reported a few days ago by us, and situated in the vicinity of Steamboat Springs, turns out to be sulphur, and the excitement among the owners is more intense than ever. There is no doubt about it being sulphur, and in almost a pure state. The stuff has been thoroughly tested, and it burns down, leaving but little or no sediment. Work will be carried on vigorously on the deposit, and in a few days we shall know what the discovery amounts to.

FREE FOR ALL.—Heretofore there has been considerable hard feeling caused at Christmas Trees because of fancied partiality on the part of the managers. To avoid this the M. E. Sunday School have decided this year to make their log cabin free to all who may wish to give presents to any one. Proper committees will take charge of the presents and see that they are delivered. By this means they expect that all, little and big, will be satisfied.

MASONIC.—At the annual election of Reno Lodge, No. 13, F. & A. M. held last Saturday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. H. Kinkoad, W. M.; C. A. Richardson, S. W.; G. H. Fogg, J. W.; A. H. Manning, Treasurer; Wm. A. Walker, Secretary. The installation of the above named officers will take place on the 27th inst.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A man named Glendenning met his death on Saturday afternoon last, at Bragg & Folsom's mill, at Camp 18, under the following circumstances. A "dog" got caught in the saw, and was projected forty feet from it, to where Glendenning was at work, striking him below the knees, and severing the arteries. He bled to death in an hour and a half.

Lost.—A few days since Mr. E. C. Sessions lost a small memorandum book, which contained papers of no value to any one but the owner. It held a diary for 1873. The finder will confer a favor by returning it to Mr. Sessions or to this office.

PERSONAL.—Mr. E. F. Gerald, Traveling Auditor of the C. P. R. R. was in Reno yesterday, looking after the interests of that company. Mr. Gerald is a very efficient officer and affable gentleman, and the railroad are fortunate in having such a man in their employ.

FUNERAL.—Yesterday the services over the remains of the late Mrs. Harwood, at the Episcopal Church, was attended by a large number of friends of the deceased. The body was taken to Auburn for interment.

INCORPORATED.—The First Baptist Church of Reno has filed its papers of incorporation in the Clerk's office, with Messrs. Granville Dodge, Jason C. Smith, Justice C. Haynes, W. W. Morton and W. Sanders as Trustees.

RETURN TICKETS.—A notice is posted up at the ticket office of the Central Pacific in this town, which informs the public that return tickets from all points on the Central Pacific Railroad can be procured at this office.

FIRE AT CARSON.—From Mr. John Forbes, who was in town yesterday, we learn that a fire in Carson on Sunday morning destroyed the bakery of Mr. Pete Cavanaugh, adjoining the Postoffice. The spread of the fire was prevented.

MEMBERS.—Tom. Forbes, of Reno, and R. S. Gamman, of Steamboat Springs, have been elected members of the Pacific Coast Pioneers. Three-time losers, both of them.

READ Mr. J. H. Wyman's card in this morning paper, under the proper heading. All his supplies are fresh, first-class and nutritious, with prices reasonable. Mr. Wyman will do the fair thing with all.

D. H. FLYNN publishes a card that will make your mouth water to read, this morning. He knows what the dancers want and a perusal of the ad. will show that he has it.

PERSONAL.—W. H. H. Fellows, of the Sacramento Herald, came up from that city to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Harwood.

LIVELY.—S. A. Hamlin, of Verdi, was in town yesterday and reports things lively at his mill.
